The game will be set during the period before winter in the historical events of the 70s. The game world will be divided into areas and regions. The game will include a host of beautiful man-made buildings, many man-made objects, forested areas and mountainous areas. You can explore these areas as you wish. In the forest you will find derelict military and commercial buildings. In the mountains you will find military fortresses, trading caravans and hills. It will be your task to capture all these structures. The game will have no limit of time. You can play it as many times as you wish, and the survival feature is always there for you to experience. If the situation dictates, you can change the world you are inhabiting with the help of the map and GPS interface. You can also see your progress and achievements via the map interface. ----- What difficulties will be included? We want to provide a lot of challenge to you. The game will contain a cold environment where you will have to protect yourself from the freezing temperatures and survive the long nights. The game will contain cold weather that will freeze you and will take away your breath. You can't handle this winter and can't escape it. You need to survive. The majority of the game will be focused on hunting, fishing, foraging, etc. We want to provide you with more than one way to survive. We wanted to provide you with the means to kill a variety of wild game, as well as provide you with the means to hunt fish. Each weapon and gear (firearms, weapons, fishing gear, etc.) will become useful at one point or another. In the game, we have taken into account the true world and its elements. We will be incorporating elements of a real world into this game and into the game world as well as into the possibilities of the game in terms of gameplay. The game world will include elements of a real world, like fireplaces, stoves, furnaces, gas tanks, electrical facilities, and so on. We will also provide you with elements of survival of a real world. You will have to forage for food and collect water, as well as construct heat sources such as fires, stoves and furnaces. We will have a whole series of resources to help you survive, such as a medical kit, weapons (both firearms and

What's new:

03.13.12 Villa Favorita Marco Tenti "Barcelona is a city made for lovers of the universal. It is a city that through its many buildings, equally diverse but managed with a passion for order, has turned itself into a whole cultural- artistic, especially for the promise of 'Modernity'. 'Modernity' and thus, with it the architecture that conceives it. The most difficult thing at the same time, is the urban planning, which in Barcelona takes the function of the space as the basis of its design. It was necessary to propose a new city with perhaps an order of new urbanism." Our city is the expression of the freedom of an owner, of a large-scale owner but also a small-scale owner. For this owner, the most beautiful thing in the center is freedom of escape: through your own house you can freely go wherever you want. Architects from Barçogol have given freedom of escape to this city by transcending the prejudices of architects, and by transcending the desires of owners of large and small urbanized agglomerations; their passion for order and his love of research have brought the city from the years 1980's until today. They have understood that architectonic projects have to be consistent not only with what it is, but also with what it will be; they have understood the project has to be that it could talk and speak with history, and that the city has to lie for the building is a historical site.In a city like this, where the daily links no longer exist, the life around the city and the life inside the city is as important as the city itself. When we realized this, we wanted that everything we built would have the memory and the ability to be part of the city for many years to come. To this end, everything that we built in the center was conceived with respect to city life and for city life. The 'Goloskop' was designed for this. The 'Goloskop' talks to the city in one of its most powerful ways: it works as much in dance, for the city as in the dance of life. And just as life is life and dances are dances, we wanted the positive relationship between life and architectures to be as important as the work itself.The 'Goloskop', apart from its roof covered with gazebos, is a big organ, made of
